

Mount Albert-City Bus Service Given Inaugural Try-Out

By MRS. E. M. STARR

A bus line will be operated by the Hollinger Bus Co. from Mount Albert to Toronto with two trips each way a day promised by the company. The service was set up following the signing of 11 petitions carrying a total of 1,405 names.

Long a need in the communities east of Yonge St. the bus line will run from Mount Albert to Vivian by way of the eighth concession, Whitechurch, west to Pleasantville, south to Sunderland Corners, and on to Dawes Road and O'Connor Drive. The south terminal is at Bay and Dundas Sts., Toronto.

Initiating the service, a bus left Mount Albert at 7:30 a.m., Wednesday, with six passengers and stopped for municipal officers and petitioners as it travelled south. Randal Chapman, Pine Orchard, and Robert Brown, Vandorf, were two of the group. Earl Toole, as former warden of the county, was asked to come, the bus driving to his door, but Mr. Toole was on his way to do his threshing and the bus went on without him.

The terminal for this first trip was the Parliament buildings in Toronto where the petitions were presented and the petitioners interviewed by Chairman Coulter of the Ontario government. The only objector to the route was an advocate of a Lindsay-Toronto line which would coincide with the new route over five miles between Highway No. 7 and the Langstaff cut-off.

Leaving the Parliament buildings, the group of 20 were entertained at Elliott House in Toronto and then went to the home of the proprietors of the bus line where Mr. Hollinger spoke his hearty thanks for the manner in which the service had been arranged.

Mr. Makins, who had acted as liaison officer between the company and petitioners spoke appreciatively of both and in turn was thanked for his information on places of interest passed on the trip which, it was said, added greatly to the pleasure of the travellers. The home-ward trip showed how a bus can promote social contacts among those who may be neighbors yet up to the time of this venture had been strangers.

Horticultural Society Presents Annual Report

The following is the annual report of the Newmarket Horticultural Society as prepared by the secretary, Hilda Tumley:

The Newmarket Horticultural Society, with Eugene McCaffery as its president, has so far enjoyed a very prosperous year. At the beginning of the 1945 season the society had considerable difficulty in choosing a president as many of the older members felt that they had given many years to the hard work of the society and that some of the younger members should step in and continue with the progress of the society, adding new ideas and "drive." The younger members in turn, hesitated to take over the responsible positions as they considered themselves inexperienced and incapable of handling the jobs. Hence, at the annual meeting, it looked as if the society was going to have an active executive with no president. But after some discussion, Mr. McCaffery offered to take on the position provided the other members would stand solidly behind him.

Well, here it is September and most of the society's work is at an end. To sum up so far, we have the largest membership in the quarter century of the society's history. The aim of the society at the beginning of the year was to raise the membership to 100 members over last year and raise it we did. Every member of the executive, whether experienced or inexperienced, put his shoulder to the wheel and canvassed the town, adding new members who have proved a real asset to the society and whom we never thought would show an interest in flowers. We added more directors to the various committees and as a result, although we have had few meetings, we have worked steadily and received a great deal of praise for our activities.

The Civic Improvement committee, with Rudy Henzius as its chairman, was especially active. The beautiful flower beds at the entrance to Newmarket welcomed the visitor to our town. Other flower beds and trees adorn the parks and streets, thanks to the hard work of this committee.

To be a member of our juvenile committee is no easy task. The work is hard and never ending, but each member of that committee has put in many strenuous and tedious hours planning juvenile shows, distributing seeds to the children and judging victory gardens. But the work of this committee has shown results and when one stands and watches the enthusiasm of these youngsters as they exhibit their flowers, vegetables and drawings, he can say, along with the chairman of this committee, Bernard McHale, "it was a hard job but it was a job worth doing. Just look at the faces of those youngsters." It's thanks to Mr. McHale, Rev. Henry Cotton, Edward Gould, H. A. Jackson, Rudy Renzius, Alex. Belugin, Eugene McCaffery, Fred Hall, Miss M. Denne, Joseph (Page 10, Col. 7)

AWAITS DISCHARGE

Chief Petty Officer Joseph G. Gladman, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gladman, Newmarket, is home on leave pending his discharge from the R.C.N.V.R. after five years of service. A radio artificer, he had a year of convoy duty in the North Atlantic and later was stationed at St. John's, Nfld., and Halifax. His wife and two children are at Canso, N.S.

The Era and Express office will be open Saturday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30, and not Saturday afternoons, for the summer months.

Contracting, Real Estate Offices Opened In Town

Harry C. Tovell, formerly associated with G. Frank Doyle, has entered the real estate business for himself. At present his office is in his own home, 34 Andrew St., but Mr. Tovell says he plans to open an office on Main St. as soon as office space is available.

During war years, Mr. Tovell was employed by de Havilland Co. and before the war, he was associated with Lake Shore Developments on the shore of Lake Ontario west of Toronto.

Mr. Tovell plans to add contracting to his real estate business and has applied to the War-time Prices and Trade Board for the necessary licenses. "There is definitely a place in Newmarket for good, middle-priced homes," he said.

He is interested in attracting new industries to Newmarket. In addition, he intends to concentrate on the buying and selling of farms. He feels that there will be an exodus from the city as housing restrictions slacken and believes Newmarket an ideal spot for many city businessmen wishing to live away from the city and factories intent on decentralization.

RECENT ARRIVAL HERE

Pte. Harvey Armstrong, whose wife, the former Dorothy Tansley, Newmarket, has been residing here during his absence, returned home recently after four years overseas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Armstrong, Gravenhurst.

LIONS REPORT ACTIVITIES IN JULY, AUGUST

The Newmarket Lions club held its first meeting of the winter season Monday night at St. Paul's church parish hall. President William J. Geer presided. It was an open meeting with time devoted to discussion of club affairs and the presentation of reports.

The reading of the minutes of business and executive meetings held during the summer by the secretary, T. F. Doyle, showed that three children had been sent to the hospital for tonsil operations, three families had been supplied with milk, three anaesthetics had been paid for, and two other children sent to the hospital for eye examination and treatment.

It was agreed by the executive at a summer business meeting that the public school board be petitioned on the behalf of Mrs. Dorothy L. Bowman for the use of a school room a half day each week for the teaching of speech correction. This work is being again sponsored by the club with Mrs. Bowman in charge.

The juvenile baseball club was granted a donation by the executive of $15 and the executive agreed to ask members to supply transportation for the club. At the beginning of Monday night's meeting, a period of silence was observed in memory of two members, J. E. Nesbitt, and Wm. L. Bosworth, who had died during the summer. Following the period of silence, Gwen Lambert sang in dedication to their memory.

H. J. Luck praised the use the Lions park had been put to during the summer when Fred L. Hall directed a six-weeks recreation program there. He was applauded by other members and a resolution asking that a letter of thanks be written to Mr. Hall and his assistants and that they be asked to appear before the club to be thanked personally was passed unanimously.

Need Fire Escapes In Public Schools, Board Member Says

Secretary R. L. Pritchard of the public school board was asked to write the public school principals instructing them to have at least one fire drill a month and to keep a record of the time required to empty the building, at the board's first meeting Tuesday in the council chambers. The resolution, moved by L. H. Bovair, followed a discussion of fire hazards in the schools.

The board also made arrangements to hire Mrs. W. H. Swayze to teach this year. Mrs. Swayze has a specialist certificate in art and her A.T.C.M. in elocution and public speaking. She will teach at Alexander Muir school.

Principal H. A. Jackson reported that the total attendance of the three schools was higher than last year. A break down of enrolment figures shows that King George school has 225 pupils, Stuart Scott school 122 pupils, Alexander Muir school 243 pupils, for a total of 602 pupils. Last June the enrolment was 565. There are 88 beginners this year as compared to 67 last year.

"There has been some criticism of the lighting in the schools," Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards told the board. She suggested that an engineer be asked to go over the lighting and report on improvements needed. "I understand that the present wiring in town is not strong enough to carry the load and all lighting in town has suffered as a result," said Mr. Pritchard.

"There should be provision for fire escapes in each of the schools," said C. Morden Carter. "There are wooden stairs in each school. I shudder to think of what might happen if one of the schools had a fire."

"There should be fire drills at least once a month," said Mr. Bovair. "I know they have drills but there should be more." "There should be an inspection to see if the doors are unbolting while the children are inside," said Mr. Carter.

Dr. G. E. Case, chairman of the board, said he would arrange for a heating expert to look over the furnaces in the schools.

Mr. Carter suggested that a book exchange be opened. Many books are thrown away after only a year's use and there is considerable needless expense to buying new books, he said.

STUDENT BODY LARGEST EVER AT PICKERING

Under the direction of assistant headmaster R. E. K. Rourke in the absence of headmaster Joseph McCulley, Pickering College opened today for the 1945-46 term with a record enrolment of 142 students. Four new masters and a new dietitian are added to the staff.

This year's student body includes boys from Mexico City, Washington, D.C., and Bermuda. The enrolment of 142 students taxes the capacity of the school and many applications had to be turned down. Enrolment last year averaged 135.

George McCowan, last year's winner of the Cummer scholarship and Woodrington Award at Pickering, enters Victoria College, Toronto, this year with two Edward Blake and the Elizabeth Burr Tyrrell scholarships to his credit.

Mr. McCulley is expected to return to Newmarket around Thanksgiving. At present he is in England giving lectures in history and international affairs at the Khaki University where soldiers who are returning to Canada can take university courses with which they will be credited upon entrance to Canadian universities.

Cardinals League Champs After Breathless Final

By ORVILLE GANTON

In a galaxy of base-hits, errors, tears and laughter, Cardinals were crowned champions of Newmarket ladies' softball league at the school grounds last Thursday. With the championship hinged on the result, the game had both spectators and players all a-twitter. Women wept, dogs barked, three umpires in real big league style pounced on every play; coaches scowled and puffed frantically on blazing cigars as they urged their players to the limit.

The score was 11-10. One drive which Mary Ellen MacInnes could have caught in her hip pocket ordinarily, was all that allowed the red birds to win the series in two straight.

Orioles broke in front and remained there until the final innings when the red birds' swat-smiths went to work on Osbornes' shoots. Cards deserved the win; their season's batting average was well above Orioles or army. Marg Hisey has pitched sound steady ball all season. Orioles' play has been very inconsistent. Of course, they have more young players than the champs.

Batting averages for the regular season shows Lois Manning, Cards' sterling centre fielder, leading the league with a .450 mark. Then come VanZant, Deam, McKenzie, P. Osborne,

HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

MacInnes, Marg Hisey, Kalagian. The league has enjoyed a very successful season. It has developed some fine players. Some time ago the president, Delbert Gibney, asked me to select an all-star line-up from the league. Now the season is over I believe it is safe to stick my neck out. Here it is in batting order: Clarke ss; Dean c; VanZant lb; Manning cf; M. Osborne 3b; Marg Hisey 1b; McKenzie rf; P. Osborne 2b; Schroder p.

Rationing Headache But Do Their Best Town Butchers Say

A general resolve to make the best of it was voiced early this week by butchers in town when polled on their attitude towards meat rationing. Most said it would be "another headache for the butcher" but as one put it, if starving people in Europe need our meat, it is to our credit if we can supply them.

Meat rationing began Monday when coupon M1 became valid. Today coupon M2 is valid, making two coupons for each person valid this week. In future however, the coupons will become valid, one each week, every Thursday. Each coupon allows two pounds of meat and bone. Eight tokens equal the value of a coupon and are used as ration "change." The rationing is more severe this year in that cooked meats, sandwich spreads, liver, and other items, unrationed before, have been placed on the restricted list.

On page four of this week's issue of The Era and Express, there is a chart of ration coupon values in reference to meat. Housewives are urged to cut out the advertisement and keep it handy for reference.

Vincent Lavoie, meat manager of the Dominion Store, said he noted a hesitancy to buy meat among his customers early this week. "It is a case of not yet becoming used to ration rules," he stated.

Queried about the reaction of his customers to meat rationing, Vincent Lavoie, meat manager of the Dominion Store, said that the customers were just not buying. "It is rather early to say definitely what is the general effect but so far the customers come in, look at the meat, and go away without buying," he said.

Ken Howard of Arctic Lockers said that in his opinion, the general feeling was that rationing was needed and now that it was here, the only thing to do was to make the best of it. "The meat supply is quite sufficient for the ordinary family," he said. "The rationing method is 100 percent better this time."

Howard Brice of Brice's Better Meat Market said that "the tokens were a headache to handle and slowed down the serving of customers. The married couple without children loose out as far as rationing is concerned but the larger families benefit." Mr. Brice said that in his opinion, rationing would result in considerable waste unless cooked meats were taken off the restricted list. "Right now, the customers are saving their coupons since they are not too sure of the values they will receive but in a couple of weeks, it should level off," he continued.

Jack Brewster, meat manager of Loblaw's, said that the rationing had caused customers to hoard their coupons to the end of the week when they could buy a roast. He thought that once the first difficulties were over, rationing would become accepted as part of the routine of living.

Russell Curtis said that if meat rationing would benefit those starving in Europe, such an act in Canada could only reflect credit on Canadians. George Knowles, saying it was too early to mark any definite reaction from customers, found rationing a headache to the butchers but was sure they would do their best in handling it.

109 Tonsil Operations Performed At Hospital

The extent to which York County hospital has been in demand was illustrated this week with the disclosure by Miss M. L. Hill, superintendent of the hospital, that there had been 109 tonsil operations during August. In July, there had been 54 tonsil operations. In August, 1944, there were 69 tonsil operations and in the same month in 1943, there were 30 tonsil operations.

During the month of August this year, there were 31 babies born in the hospital and in July, 37 babies were born there.

Originally a 40-bed hospital, the Margaret Davis Memorial wing meant the addition of 18 beds. Although not yet completely finished, the new wing had to be pressed into service July 10 when the old part of the hospital was crowded beyond capacity with 63 patients. Since then, the lower floor of the new wing has been in constant use. The day it first saw use there were 11 mothers and 12 babies.

No arrangements have yet been made for an official opening of the new wing, W. H. Eves, chairman of the hospital board, said. It was the intention to wait until the wing had been completely finished before officially opening it, but the overcrowding of the old part of the hospital forced early usage of the new wing.

Attractively painted in cool green and tan colors, the new wing presents a picture of cheery brightness. The most up to date equipment procurable has been used and the furnishings are modern and colorful in appearance.

The wing was suggested by the three Davis brothers as a memorial to their mother and half of the cost was met by them. The other half was raised by contributions from organizations and individuals and grants from town and county.

The land east of the tennis courts which, through the co-operation of the tennis club and the town council, has been granted to the Newmarket fire brigade as a site for the proposed shower pool, has been ploughed over by Percy Hutchinson in preparation for seeding and levelling. It is the intention of the fire brigade to turn the plot into a beauty spot as well as a source of recreation for children, Councilor Frank Bowser stated.

THEY NEED YOUR HELP

The Salvation Army began its annual appeal for funds this week. The objective for Newmarket and district is $2,000. The objective is small compared to what the sum will accomplish in the hands of these experienced workers in the blue uniforms.

As a court reporter in the city, we had a first hand opportunity to witness one phase of the Salvation Army work, that of helping those who, for one reason or another, had broken the law. In each of the police courts, there was a Salvation Army officer. He stood by to help the prisoner in whatever way was required. The crime was not of importance. The man behind the bars was a man in need of support and comfort. The Salvation Army representative was ever ready to provide it.

What impressed us most about the Salvation Army officer was the respect in which he and his organization were held by police (usually rather impatient as far as social workers are concerned), the magistrates and the lawyers. Quiet, unobtrusive, the Salvation Army officer was almost as essential to the court-room as the magistrate himself.

Work in the court-rooms is only a small phase of the Salvation Army's far-reaching program. Other activities include the operation of hostels for the "down and out," the care of motherless children, the old folks' homes, rescue homes where wayward girls are cared for and given a fresh start in life, hospitals, boys' homes, and camps for underprivileged children.

In the war years, the Salvation Army has operated canteens and club rooms for service men and women. Because of its widespread organization, the Salvation Army has been able to provide these facilities all over the world.

It is to continue this work that the citizens of Newmarket and district are asked to share in the raising of $2,000. The Salvation Army needs your help to help others.

FROM YOUTH TO AGE

Nothing seems to try the patience of a mother more than to find that while washing her son's pants, she also washed a wad of used gum, two nails, a bird's egg and a dozen other assorted objects which little Willy forgot to remove from his pockets. The discovery is usually made after the clothes have been in the water and the contents of the pockets become a gooey mass. Willy receives a scolding but next Monday, he will do it again and like the majority of his fellow males, continue the practice the rest of his life.

There is one difference between the Willy of the barefoot days and the older Willy in that the contents of his pockets change. Where Young Willy doted on such collectors' items as bottle caps, chalk, string and horseshoe nails, the Elder Willy accumulates old shopping lists, unmailed letters and bills. Where the chipped agate of esoteric connotations served Young Willy for currency in trading with his friends, the Elder Willy uses silver coins and green paper of somewhat wider acceptance. Young Willy carried a licorice whip and the Elder Willy carries a pipe.

Of the two, the Young Willy is the most fortunate. He lives in a world of values set by himself. He may prize the broken top as a trophy of some youthful contest, giving it value far beyond its pecuniary worth. The brass ring and the polished door-knob have for Young Willy associations which enrich him far beyond his dreams of fortune. If his prize mud turtle loses favor, there is always a pet mouse or watch-beetle to take its place. His values are constantly renewed in ever-changing patterns, subservient only to his own desires.

There is no value in a squirrel tail, clothes-pin or colored glass for the Elder Willy. In their place is money, the means by which the necessities of life are provided. Where Young Willy is happy in a world of his own choosing, the Elder Willy must labor always for values set by others.

CLUB FOR COMMUNITY

At the time of writing, the baseball team chosen from the league in which Newmarket played and composed in large part of Newmarket boys, has won its way close to the final game of the Ontario championship. The team has been financed so far by individuals and this week, a canvass was being made on Main St. to raise additional funds. The boys have paid part of their expenses and transportation has been provided by a loyal group of followers.

It is unfortunate that the team has not been given better support by the town. The lack of a community backing is another demonstration of an over-all lack of community spirit such as has given Newmarket a bad name even among its own citizens.

Newmarket has more than its quota of social and service organizations. Each church has its men's and women's clubs. In addition, there are the Lions club, the Newmarket Veterans' Association, the Red Cross branch, the Women's Institute, and others. This large number of associations, has, in our opinion, made it increasingly difficult to create a uniform community spirit. Energies which might be directed towards the welfare of the community as a whole, are being confined to individual organizations.

Would it not be healthier for the town if there was a general community association, presided over by an executive composed of representatives from the separate organizations. In this way, the activities of the various organizations might be co-ordinated into a single effort. Individual organizations could call on others for help. Of Newmarket citizens, not at present enrolled in existing organizations, would be given a like opportunity for club activity. A community organization could make a stronger demand for public services than individual organizations have in the past.

In the coming months, there will be an ever greater need for a strong community spirit. The age opening for us is an age of accomplishment. Great things can be done in Newmarket by Newmarket citizens if they will work together. If they are unable to support a ball team, however, there is little hope that Newmarket and those who live in it will profit in the future.

In Passing

Wm. LaParde is to be complimented for the manner in which he brought together so many veterans of this war and the last at the recent veterans' gathering at the Citizen-Soldier club. Mr. LaParde and his committee worked hard to bring out the veterans and the successful meeting was due in large part to their efforts.

Towards the end of last week, the thermometer climbed far above the average so it is only small comfort to note that 50 years ago, the thermometer registered 96 degrees in the shade.

The number of cases being handled by York County hospital demonstrates how great the need was for increased resources. Those who contributed so generously to the hospital have their reward in the knowledge of how much suffering they helped prevent and how much they have done to raise the health standards of the district. The greatest obstacle to improved public health is always the lack of convenient facilities. The presence of a hospital in this district has enabled health measures which 20 years ago were out of the question.

What Others Think

UNSKILLED LABOR SHORTAGE

(Free Press Herald, Midland)

There are plenty of jobs available for men who are being let out from the war factories. So we are told by Ottawa, which reports a shortage of 150,000 workers throughout Canada.

Unfortunately most of these jobs are of the unskilled labor variety. They do not pay the high wages that were earned in making munitions, and for the present most of the vacancies are unfilled. Many men will not take unskilled work at lower pay. There has been so much talk on the part of politicians about the duty of the government to provide full employment for all, that many workers have come to think they are entitled to jobs which will pay them war wages and enable them to live at home. That has never been the way of the world in times of peace. Men have had to seek work rather than having it laid at their door.

It will not be necessary for all men who have acquired mechanical skill during the war to revert to their earlier occupations. All "upgrading" will not be lost, and it should not be. It may be necessary temporarily for men to do manual labor if we would get normal industries going again.

So long as there are not enough men to do rough work it is impossible to convert the skilled industries to peace work. As one writer puts it: "Locomotive engineers cannot run trains over non-existent tracks; scientists cannot work in laboratories which are not swept; carpenters and plumbers cannot work without lumber and soil pipe; motor car factories cannot run without iron and coal. A shortage of unskilled labor means unemployment for skilled labor."

Some contractors have been driven to persuading skilled workmen to dig foundations at their regular rates. It is absurd, of course, to waste the time of skilled bricklayers and carpenters in digging cellars, but the men themselves realize that without foundations there can be no superstructure.

There is nothing dishonorable about unskilled labor. The man who works with his back and brawn is as absolutely necessary to human society as the man who toils with his brain alone. We cannot all be experts or specialists.

More and more unskilled labor is being replaced by machinery. Bulldozers are doing much work formerly done by pick and shovel, but there will always be need for hardy, unskilled men. If Canadians will not do these jobs then they must not complain if pressure is put on the government to allow the immigration of a considerable number of men from Europe who are not afraid to soil their hands and bend their backs.

ARE WE CANADIANS OR WHAT?

(The Sun, Swift Current)

Reports coming from Ottawa would seem to indicate that at long last, and very much overdue, consideration may be given by parliament to conferring on Canadians a rightful nationality. American citizens, whether their forefathers came from Ireland, Poland, Russia or Scotland, always refer to themselves with pride as "Americans." People living in Canada, on the other hand, have to furtively hang their heads and enquire from some bureaucrat to find out just what in heaven's name they are. Why parliaments of Canada have for so many years passed the buck on this vital issue is beyond the understanding of the common man.

This business of being "French-Canadians" and "English speaking Canadians" is very silly. Until we attain a nationality we won't have any pride in ourselves or the great achievements of our nation. When the last national registration was taken, honest to goodness Canadians who had been born in this country, fought and bled for this country, were noted not as what they really are, but everything from Russians to Hotentots because some forerunner had once upon a time come from there. The situation really has been a shameful one. Let parliament quit quibbling and give Canadians their rightful status, and for goodness sake give us a distinctive flag like Australia and other dominions. We've grown up in the last two great wars. Let's keep our fealty with the Crown, Great Britain and the British Commonwealth of Nations, but let us in name be a nation, too, and give people of Canada a nation-

ONCE AGAIN

September seems to be a month of beginnings—at least of fresh starts on old roads. Schools, from the "little red school house" to the elaborate structure where the most modern equipment is housed are throwing open their doors to the feet—feet reluctant and feet eager—that will march into them, the owners of said feet ready to absorb as much or as little as they conveniently can of the mental pabulum served.

There is always, to me, a sense of mystery about a classroom. It pervades even the sometimes monotonous routine of travel on the highway of knowledge. Some teachers put so much of themselves into their work that like "bread cast upon the waters," it sometimes comes back to them in the knowledge that a pupil has written a great book or sung a great song or contributed to the advance of science and better living. Each life a teacher comes in contact with has within its core a mysterious something which may develop into greatness, reach a decent common place level, or, sad to say, may sink to lower level. Teaching is a challenging business, for as anyone who has known children realizes, they are reflectors. Teachers need to keep the reflectors clear so that no distorted image emerges.

Now the shop windows reflect the changing season. Fall clothes emerge—even if in limited quantities. Hats, or creations that purport to be hats, startle us with a sense of the unreal. Tempting draperies and dishevelled peep at us and make us long to make all sorts of magazine pictures come true in our homes.

Now is the time when, after a series of guest speakers, the clergymen in all churches are taking up their work again—facing up to the problems that a world in chaos presents. Two weeks ago Capt. Maclean spoke of his experience with all kinds of men including agnostics and atheists but he said if they ruled out God from their universe they put in something else in a vain effort to fill the eternal void of the Godless.

Last Sunday Rev. R. R. McMahon returned after illness and holiday and spoke to his own people again. He told of the many letters he had received, congratulatory and encouraging in reference to the opening of the Pine Orchard Union church. Rev. Sanderson, who preached the sermon on that day, wrote of the delight of his experience. A touching letter from a man Mr. McMahon once knew, now a down and outer from drink, enclosed a contribution. There were many letters and all must have left a warm spot in the heart of the recipient who had labored so long and so valiantly to bring a dream into sturdy and lovely reality.

Mr. McMahon's first sermon was a golden rule sermon. He spoke of the cessation of hostilities in Japan; of the terrible account of brutalities practised on prisoners, the sum total of which is not yet reached. Then he said the golden rule is touching our rulers and spoke of General McArthur saying that he hoped the conquerors came not in a spirit of hatred but of justice and fair play.

Mr. McMahon said that the rule of "doing unto others as we would have them do unto us" could revolutionize living. "If we must live by rule, let us live by the golden rule."

Letter From Ottawa

By J. E. SMITH, M.P., York North

Canada's 20th Parliament officially came into being last Thursday with the opening of the first session. Along with 245 members I took the oath of office and signed the roll. If the weather for the opening is any criterion, it will be a hot session. The traditional ceremonies were carried out under a hot September sun, and there is an apt saying about Ottawa weather to the effect that "when it's hot it's very hot, and when it's cold, it's very cold."

We were warmly greeted by Prime Minister King and as always he was enquiring for his many friends in North York. The P.M. is looking real fit and is in fine fettle. We haven't met Mr. Bracken yet but had a friendly welcome from his right hand man, Gordon Graydon, from the neighboring riding of Peel. Gordon Graydon is a popular member of the house and has established an enviable reputation as a good fellow and a fair fighter who never hits below the belt.

Mrs. Smith and our three daughters, were present for the opening ceremonies also Ned C. Hill, who performed the duties of official agent in the recent election, with Mrs. Hill and Morgan Baker, former M.P.P. for York North.

As a new member I have been busy getting used to things—getting to know the ropes as they say down here. The business of government and administration is extensive and complicated and there is much to learn. However everyone is very helpful and obliging and from the P.M. down all have been very considerate and thoughtful of the new member for York North. I am settled in my office in the Parliament Buildings. It is on the fourth floor, number 450, and our office-mate is Bucko McDonald, former National Hockey League star and the newly-elected member for Parry Sound, succeeding Arthur Slaght. Bucko, who tips the scales at 245 pounds, is one of the heavyweights of the new house. He is a fine chap who reached the top in a hard game before and a fine future is predicted for him here. My desk mate in the house is Mr. Mathews, the member for Brandon, Man. My seat is almost directly behind the prime minister, and just two desks distant is Col. David Croll, the popular member for Toronto Spadina.

I find the constituency of York North rates highly on Parliament Hill, and when we meet people invariably their first question is "how's Bill Mullock?" The former Postmaster General was a popular and highly regarded member and there is general regret that he was forced through ill-health to retire. I was happy to tell them that Bill is progressing very favorably and his physicians are well pleased with the improvement in his heart condition. He spent some eight weeks in Temagami this summer, is going down east for a short time and plans to visit us here in Ottawa in about two weeks.

I hope to make these weekly letters from Ottawa bright and interesting. We do not propose that they shall be burdened with parliamentary detail or items which you, get in your daily paper or over the air. Rather we hope to make them newsy letters to the folks at home about people and things here in the capital. I hope you will reciprocate by wiring me on any matters at any time. Just address it to J. E. Smith, M.P., Parliament Buildings, Ottawa, and it doesn't require a stamp. Make sure to use the initials, though, as I think the membership of this house includes three Smiths.

The Speech from the Throne was general in character, and we did not outline in detail contemplated legislation. It did provide the general outline or pattern of legislation which will be brought down to meet the needs of post-war Canada. The details will be worked out as the session develops and as future sessions are held. Two veterans of the war started the debate on the Speech.

The speakers were Wing Commander W. N. Benidickson (L. Kenora-Rainy River), and Lieut. Leopold Langlois (L. Gaspé). Wing Commander Benidickson, round-faced and youthful-looking, was in civilian clothes while Lieut. Langlois wore the blue uniform of a naval officer. It turned out they had been messmates at Halifax during the war when the former served as R.C. A.F. liaison officer to the navy.

In this new house there is already noticeable a commendable determination to build a better Canada. National and international problems present a formidable task, but among all members of all parties we note a spirit of determination that democracy having been saved for us at so great a cost, that now we must really make it worth the price.

DANGEROUS DRIVING HEARING POSTPONED

Lloyd St. John, charged with dangerous driving following an accident in which Alex. Lunau lost his life, was remanded on bail of $1,000 to Sept. 21 by Magistrate McIlveen in magistrate's court here Friday.

Kenneth Bimmister, charged with having liquor in an illegal place, was fined $10 and costs. Constable Stewart Martin testified that he found seven pints of beer in accused's car.

Charged with inflicting grievous bodily harm on T. R. Sheppard, Jackson's Point, Richard Godfrey, Sutton, was remanded a week for judgment by the magistrate. Mr. Sheppard testified that accused had hit him in the face, drawing blood, on the porch of a hotel in Jackson's Point on Aug. 20. Witness also stated that when he was in his car following the first assault, he was struck again by two persons whom he took to be accused and his wife.

Accused stated that he had slapped Mr. Sheppard with his open hand when witness said that accused's wife "was no lady" if married to accused. He denied having struck witness at the hotel and said the slap occurred when witness approached him and his wife as they stood by their car.

Also remanded a week for judgment was Cpl. Wilfred Rose, R.C.A.F., Camp Borden, who was charged with the theft of an auto belonging to Aubrey Sedore, Jackson's Point. Mr. Sedore stated that on Sept. 2 he heard his car being driven from the garage during the night. He was unable to see who had taken it, he said.

Constable William Hill said that while patrolling the highway he had met the car, recognized it as Sedore's, but seeing accused driving it, had given chase. He said he found the car abandoned. "I went to the home of the accused's father and later in the morning, accused appeared in Baldwin," he said.

A statement signed by accused said he had taken the car to drive his fiancée home and had every intention of returning it. Constable Hill said that he was satisfied accused had not taken the car for purpose of crime and that he believed him when accused said he intended to return the car after he had taken his fiancée home.

Ft. Lieut. MacPherson, padre at Camp Borden, stated that accused had a clean record in the R.C.A.F. Accused has been stationed at Camp Borden since June. Prior to that time, he had been stationed in Ceylon for three years.

Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong, stating he was not satisfied with the character of evidence, asked a remand of a week before judgment was passed. The remand was granted. Saying he had expected a trial by jury, Chesley Sweet was given a week to produce witnesses in defense against a charge of theft of a tire from Howard Dennis. The value of the tire was under $25. Mr. Dennis said the tire had been stolen while he was berry-picking and he identified a tire found in accused's car as the same one.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT GIVES TWO-MONTH TERM IN N.S.S. CHARGE

A two-month sentence was given Joseph Caradonna, 19, found guilty on a charge of refusing to obey a selective service directive ordering him to report for work on a C.N.R. road gang at Allandale, in magistrate's court here Friday. Magistrate J. E. Pritchard also ordered accused to be escorted to the alternate service camp at Chalk River on the completion of his jail term. Accused pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Evidence from selective service officers and files was that accused was not employed and that he had not accepted other employment offered him. He was ordered to the Allandale camp last year but had not reported. Magistrate W. E. McIlveen had ordered him to report there last year.

Early this summer accused again received selective service orders to report there. "I went to the camp but found conditions so terrible with mosquitoes and lice preventing me from sleeping, that I vowed I would never return. I would rather go to jail," accused said.

Selective service prosecutor, Alex. Forbes, Orillia, asked the maximum sentence of three months. Magistrate Pritchard, saying he was not without knowledge of conditions on a section gang, gave sentence of two months.

Pleading guilty to a charge of vagrancy, Alfred Mathews was fined ten dollars. Bruce Glover testified that accused had created a disturbance in a restaurant in Sutton.

Irwin E. Hillis was found guilty of a charge of careless driving. He had been originally charged with dangerous driving but Magistrate Pritchard reduced the charge. Melva Rose and her sister, Mrs. Verna Smith, testified that accused had swerved his truck at them as they walked along the highway. Accused denied having done so. Miss Audrey Hamilton, who had been riding in the truck, said the truck had not swerved towards the witnesses. Accused was fined $25 and costs.

Accused was also fined ten dollars on a charge that he had struck Miss Rose during an argument following the incident on which the driving charges had been laid. Harley Smith, husband of Mrs. Smith, was found guilty on a charge of assault and was also fined ten dollars. Hillis testified accused struck him at a dance hall.

To All Blood Donors Thank You

2,347,000 blood donations were made in Canada, 1,423,000 in Ontario, through the volunteer Blood Donor Service of the Canadian Red Cross Society since the first clinics were established in January, 1940. The lives of hundreds in the army, the navy and the air force were saved through this service.

This record was only made possible through your donations of blood. We wish to thank you sincerely for your generous help at a time when the need was so great. Special thanks are also given to the doctors, nurses, transport drivers and all other volunteers who gave so generously of their time and talents.

The Volunteer Blood Donor Service is now closed as a war measure. A new challenge is presented, however, for many deaths occur in Canadian hospitals each year for lack of an adequate transfusion service.

To meet this need, the Red Cross is making a survey with a view to providing all Canadian hospitals with blood for transfusion purposes. To our thanks, then, we add an invitation to help us as we continue our humanitarian work. When the time comes, and plans are ready, announcements will be duly made.

AND YOU'VE GOT INFLATION

Let's not deceive ourselves by the belief that the danger is over—just because the war is won. And let's remember that inflation is always followed by deflation with its misery of bankrupt businesses, mortgage foreclosures and unemployment.

It's your job and your savings that are at stake.

The danger of inflation, with its black shadow—deflation—will reappear as long as goods are scarce and inefficient to meet demands. That may be 6 months, 12 months, 18 months. Only time will tell. As quickly as controls are unnecessary, they are dropped. After nearly 6 years of war, industry cannot switch over to normal production of civilian goods by a snap of the fingers. Reconversion takes time. The whole system of raw materials, labor and production has to be re-ordered.

In the meantime, price ceilings, rationing and other controls are the safeguard for every one of us. It's everybody's responsibility to help make them work.

50—Keep on watching your buying. Don't rush to buy scarce goods. Keep on saving your money. Put in lots of Victory bonds and War Savings certificates.

Keep on supporting wage and price controls, and keep on fighting inflation and its black shadow.

DOWN THE CENTRE

Normie Mann, who captained Newmarket Redmen to the Dominion title in 1933 and then turned professional with the Leafs and Pittsburgh Hornets, has been discharged from the Royal Canadian Navy as we predicted a few weeks back. Mann has grabbed off a good go as manager of a swank hunting and fishing lodge at Mattawa in the Ottawa valley and is now well established on civvy street.

He enjoyed a good season last winter with Halifax navy and should have little difficulty in making the grade with Pittsburgh when the snow falls.

Pte. Ace Yake, back from overseas and stationed at Barrie with Canada's Pacific forces, has been posted to the sports staff of the infantry brigade stationed there. This should suit the Ace right to the well known T as well as bringing good results on the sports field to the foot sloggers.

Earl Rowe scored his initial win in the running horse game last week as Royal Stand, a son of the oldtimer, Stand Pat, came through in his maiden effort to best a good crop of Canadian juveniles. The price across the board was $6.67, $4.40 and $2.85.

Royal Stand is an entry along with Blondie Fair for the 1946 running of the King's Plate and Canadian Derby at Winnipeg. This fall the chestnut colt is booked for the Cup and Saucer at Long Branch, the big race for Canadian two-year-olds. It is a fine start for Mr. Rowe and his partner in this field, Gen. Don Hogarth of Port Arthur.

Ellis Pringle, former Newmarket Redman and maestro of Sutton Greenshirts in 1942 when the Lake Simcoe boys went through to an O.H.A. title, has had plenty of time this year at Mossington Park to think things over so don't be surprised if the Sutton boys are re-entered in the O.H.A. this winter. Ellis, of course, will again be in charge of the Sutton arena and intermediate hockey is the only brand that pays off at the wicket in that part of the country. Hope it is so. Ellis.

Our thanks go to our good friend, Chart Holmes, of St. Catharines for a copy of the fine lacrosse program that has been issued by the St. Kitts Athletics who are once again Mann Cup bound. "Chart" needs no introduction to North York fans.

He is one of the Garden City's leading sports boosters, just as he was in Canatown, and he can take justifiable pride in the de luxe way things are run at St. Kitts. The program is a model for any sport or any place and is well illustrated and chock full of pix, ads and information.

He also enclosed a clipping which shows figure skating in full swing at St. Catharines with many outsiders enjoying the privilege of learning to skate smoothly during their holidays. The same applies to the rink at Timmins where figure skaters from across Canada and the U.S.A. have enjoyed a splendid summer. We suspect Brother Holmes was dropping a hint to the good burghers of Newmarket that artificial ice and a good arena are not necessarily a winter proposition only but can pay off by way of cash chips, recreation and advertising for a municipality all the year round.

Bert McGaw of Toronto is the winner of the men's open at the Briars Golf club this year. Red Horner reached the semi-final round but the former Maple Leafs star faded after that. A bang up presentation party was held last week with aspirants provided. Collingwood kids made a hit with their stand against a bigger and better Newmarket squad last week. Huck Caesar's laddies, except for one player, could all have played in bantam in place of midget and it is a bit puzzling why Collingwood didn't seek that rating. They would have given the York Lions bantams a real battle in the O.B.A. Incidentally, the training that young Bill McGhee received at Maple Leaf stadium was noticeable in his fine play in the final game at the initial sack. McGhee looked like the proverbial million dollars and had a perfect day at bat. He is a real asset to the team and the present infield will take a lot of beating any place in Ontario.

Norm Heise has Williegit ready for the Coronation, the Cup and Saucer and the Clarendon Plate and this offspring of Bunty Lawless will receive the acid test in the next few weeks. Last week she negotiated the mile in 1:51.4 under wraps and according to all reports is coming along nicely. Don't say we didn't give you the tip.

Inquirer: We received a request to clarify the Tommy Farr vs. Joe Louis situation and we are sorry to say for your sake that you are wrong and had better pay off. Tommy Farr only clashed with Joe Louis once, that over the 15-round route on Aug. 30, 1937. Louis, according to our recollection, was lucky to take the decision but, definitely, they only met once. The reason is that after fighting Louis, Farr fell afoul with his managers, was badly matched and trained and looked so bad in his other bouts against palooka opponents that a return bout with Louis was not calculated to draw very much. Farr returned to England with not too much sugar left in his pocket from his American trip and since then "Tonypandy Tommy" has been running a pub which more than one North York boy patronized when across the pond. Tommy is still mighty popular over 'ome.

To Charlie Ryan and Lloyd Foote we are pleased to report that the Barrie executive is prepared to play Roselawns in a series for the Patterson trophy and are communicating direct as to dates and other matters to be decided upon. Mutual agreement is all that is necessary now. Just where is the Patterson trophy? That's a little matter we hope to find out this week.

Cpl. Al Stevens, who ran some fine races for Newmarket camp in 1944, taking the M.D. 2 furlong title in 24 secs and the 220 and 440 at the big C.A.C. meet, was discharged from the infantry this week and is now back home at Ottawa. Stevens has been stationed at Camp Borden since leaving Newmarket. Jimmy Crean, ex-outfielder of Richmond Hill Roses, is now stationed with the army at Peterborough camp but because of illness, has not participated in the summer sport this year. He hopes to receive his discharge soon.

Pat Patterson of Toronto, who for the past few years has been one of the leading officials in the O.H.A. and in great demand for junior games in these parts, is a summer resident of North York and a prominent member of that Elmhurst Beach crowd who have raised quite a bit of scratch for the British War Victims' fund over the past few years. Pat was in charge of providing the entertainment at Carl Anderson's big corn roast in August and did a masterly job of things.

Doug Paul, former Newmarket resident now located in Hamilton, is having a difficult job deciding whether or not he will perform for the newly resurrected Tigers or for the Wildcats with whom he played last year. Chances are on the latter team, however, since Doug is a business associate of Eddie McLean who is coaching the Cats while Brian Timmis, the ex-coach, is with the Tigers. Friendship plays far too small a part in sports where pennant winners are concerned in pre-season calculations.

Joe Buda was off-color in the semi-finals of the Davisville league with the result that Mother Parker's, which displayed nice ball in Newmarket this summer and are current Toronto Senior B champions, are not even going to reach the finals in their own league. Doesn't even make sense does it but there you have it. Sounds like the N.H.L.

Major Gerry Goodman, ex-N.H.L. referee, Camp Borden sports officer and now a resident of Aurora, has the program and concession rights at Oakwood stadium and has already lined up some of the leading arenas in Ontario for the winter months. Major Goodman knows this business from A to Z having had the Hollywood Ball Park, Syracuse and Buffalo in other years. He is, of course, out of the army now after five years of active service. He is a vet of 1914 too.

Babe Teasdale, the old Sultan of swoosh, was in Aurora last weekend looking the picture of health. Graham, ex-Newmarket Redman and Buffalo Bison, looks in the best condition of his career but has of course long since retired from hockey. Teasdale left his war work to rejoin the firm he was with in pre-war days and is now in

MOUNT ALBERT BREAK INTO STATION, TYPEWRITER TAKEN

The C.N.R. station was broken into again Monday night and all that was taken was Mr. Robertson's typewriter and some batteries belonging to others. Several parcels of baggage were opened but nothing taken.

When Mr. Robertson opened up in the morning everything was locked up as usual so the police came to the conclusion they had opened a door and re-locked it again. The safe was battered a bit but not opened. This is the first time this year the station has been entered but it was broken into twice last year.

The September shipment of the Red Cross included: two quilts, three blue plaid dresses, five blue coats, five baby jackets, two baby soakers, four boys' sweaters, three prs. khaki gloves, five prs. khaki socks, two sleeveless sweaters, three tan sweaters.

The Era and Express may be purchased in Newmarket at Spillette's, Best's, Bolton's, Campbell's, Bell's and Carruthers'.

HIKE, WEINER ROAST START FALL MEETINGS

Members of the 67th Salvation Army Brownie pack of Newmarket enjoyed a hike and weiner roast on Friday evening. A sing-song around the camp fire was followed by the weiner roast.

This marked the first fall and winter meeting. The Brownies have held meetings all summer and the girls have turned out splendidly. The meetings are held Monday evenings.

Check... with... Purina CHECKERS for MORE EGGS! the Easy Way!

Eggs are bringing real money this fall! It will pay you to "go after them" and here is an easy way to do it

CHECKERS BEAT WET MASH "HANDS DOWN"

More and more good poultrymen are feeding Purina Laying Checkers as a "top feed" in place of wet mash, because Checkers have so many advantages. They are handy to feed—no mixing, no mashing, no pail washing... feed them in your Sunday clothes if you feel like it! And they can't spoil or mould or freeze if there are any left over, because they are dry.

Try Purina Laying Checkers as a noon top feed for your layers, this season. Just dump 3 to 5 lbs. per 100 hens in the hoppers every day at noon. You will find they make a real egg-producing addition to your ration, no matter what else you are feeding.

BE SMART—FEED YOUR WET MASH DRY

THIS YEAR plan to get all the eggs you can from your laying house space—fill your laying house and keep it filled! One hen needs 4 sq. feet of laying house floor space—and a good hen, fed for production, can lay 200 eggs a year. That means 200 eggs a year from 4 sq. feet of laying house floor space—and that counts more than the number of eggs per hen!

Set yourself a goal—make every 4 sq. feet of laying house floor space do a capacity job. Keep a good hen in that space and feed your birds a real egg-making ration. Come in and see us for details of a plan for doing the job—the Purina Balanced Income Plan!

Rev., Mrs. Wm. J. Stewart Have Fiftieth Anniversary

Rev. and Mrs. William J. Stewart, Edward St., celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Monday with many friends calling to pay their respects to the couple who have made many friends here since they moved to Aurora in 1940.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are natives of Simcoe County. Mr. Stewart was born at Dalston near Barrie of Scotch parentage and Mrs. Stewart, whose maiden name was Isabella Dean, is a native of Barrie. The couple met when they were attending Barrie Collegiate and they have been sweethearts ever since.

Mr. Stewart, now a retired United church minister, was originally a member of the Congregational church and following his graduation from Barrie C.I. went to Oberlin College in Ohio where he received his degree. His first charge was at Amery, Wisconsin, and from there he returned to Canada to wed at Barrie. After five years at Amery he entered Ripon College near Fond du Lac, Wis., to further his studies and during his three-year course occupied the pulpit at nearby Rosendale. From there he went to Andover College affiliated with Harvard University and studied theology under the famous Moore brothers. After some years in the New England states he received a call from the Congregational church at Buda, Illinois, and his ministry there is one of his happiest memories. Falling into ill health, the congregation paid his way to Europe and he visited England, Scotland, France, Germany and Belgium. On his return he gave a series of travelogues, the proceeds being used for missionary purposes.

When ill health again came he decided to move to western Canada and the couple settled in Saskatchewan, then suffering from growing pains as a new province. He was quickly recognized as a scholar and speaker and was pressed into service as secretary of the Saskatchewan social service council. For years an ardent temperance advocate, he thrust himself into the fight to bring reform to the Saskatchewan liquor laws, campaigning throughout the province and winning for himself the title of "Banish-the-Bar" Stewart. His efforts and those of his colleagues were crowned with success when just before the last war, extensive liquor restrictions were placed on the statute books, culminating in prohibition in 1920. Mr. Stewart drafted the bill which passed through the Saskatchewan legislature sponsored by the now Hon. Mr. Justice Turgeon, Canadian ambassador to Belgium, who was then the attorney-general. He also received the full support of the premier, W. J. Scott.

For many years he was secretary of the Saskatchewan board

The local objective is $1,000 and Mr. West believes this amount can only be reached if all citizens will give a donation of some sort. ## 24 ENROLLED IN BOYS' BAND

The work of re-organizing the Aurora Boys' Band is proceeding "satisfactorily," Robert Moore, bandmaster, says. At present the band has a strength of 24 with about half that number being newcomers. There are many more boys who have expressed their intention of joining the band but difficulty in securing suitable instruments has held them up.

"I believe we will develop another band as good as the one we had before the war intervened," said Mr. Moore. "The boys are working hard and their parents are showing interest. We will welcome anyone who wants to join and we are always glad to have parents or friends attend the practices on Tuesday and Thursday evenings."

Back with the band after service in the armed forces are John McGhee and Howard Case and one or two others who went to the services are also expected to return.

The next public appearance of the band will be at Weston Lions carnival at Weston on Sept. 22.

OLD COMRADES JOIN IN RITES FOR VETERAN

In an impressive ceremony last Thursday the entire community mourned the death of Sgt. Angus Dawson, 38-year-old war veteran, whose sudden death on Tuesday, Sept. 11, came as a distinct shock to his countless friends.

Born at Stornoway, Scotland, Sgt. Dawson came to Aurora when a few months old with his parents, Mrs. Horace Dawson and the late Mr. Dawson, and was educated in Aurora schools. He served overseas three and a half years with the British Columbia Regiment (28 C.A.R.), and only a few weeks ago had returned to Canada.

"This community has suffered a distinct loss with the passing of Angus Dawson. This family has contributed two sons in the great fight for liberty and freedom. We must do our part to see their sacrifices have not been in vain," said Rev. George Dix, Toronto, former pastor of Aurora St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, who conducted the funeral service at the Dawson residence. Sgts. Life, Hugo, Walker, Renison, Brown and Rawson of No. 23 B.T.C., Newmarket, served as pallbearers for their comrade in arms and a guard of honor and firing party of lance-corporals from No. 23 B.T.C. stood guard during the service and at the cemetery. The entire party was under the command of Lieut. Frederick White.

As the cortege moved from the residence to the last resting place, the Newmarket camp pipe band under the command of Pipe-Major Jack Ferris played the stirring lament, "Flowers of the Forest," with drums muffled and draped in black. A detachment from the Aurora R.C.O.C. Depot under the command of Sgt. Ben Kosloski, and the Aurora war veterans under the command of President George Duffield, which included veterans of the present war, many of whom were personal friends of Sgt. Dawson, took part in the solemn funeral procession.

At the graveside, Last Post and Reveille were sounded by Bugler Fairley following Rev. Dix's final commitment and three volleys were fired by the firing party. As a final tribute, veterans saluted the bier of their deceased comrade and deposited a poppy.

Sgt. Dawson is survived by his widow, the former Gertrude Swanson, one daughter, Trudy, his mother, Mrs. H. Dawson, a sister, Mrs. Gladys McIntyre, Ottawa, and a brother, Frank, of Toronto.

While making a purchase at Cousin's Dairy Saturday morning, 60-year-old John Pamenter of Toronto, who had been residing at his summer home in King township, dropped to the floor following a heart attack and died almost instantly. The clerk in charge summoned Dr. Crawford Rose but Mr. Pamenter was beyond medical aid. He had not been in good health. The body was removed to a Toronto funeral home for burial.

Back From Overseas

Home from overseas or expected to arrive home this week are the following Aurora and district men:

Pte. Howard "Drummer" Lloyd was one of the first Aurora men to enlist, going overseas in 1940 as a member of an anti-aircraft battery. He saw service in the defense of Britain and in Italy, later going to the western front. He went through the campaigns without injury. A brother, Cpl. Gardner Lloyd, and three nephews preceded him home.

Cpl. Thomas Raeside, First Hussars, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Raeside, Centre St., enlisted in 1940, going overseas in 1941. After training in England he went into action on D-Day and was wounded last fall but is now fully recovered. A former star rider of the Aurora cycling club, he is hoping his bride and young son will soon be in Canada.

LAC Bill Ground, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ground, enlisted in 1942 and saw two years duty in Canada at Hagersville before proceeding overseas in 1944. He saw duty in England only, but was busy with the planes that dealt the final blows from the R.C.A.F. next month. WO1 Lawrence Obee, Toronto, formerly of Aurora, brother of Mrs. Douglas Knowles, Aurora, and Constable Fred Obee, Newmarket, is home after nearly two years overseas. He saw considerable action but escaped unscathed, and is now enjoying a reunion with his wife and young son.

After four years overseas with the infantry, Pte. Lester Pilson, son of Mrs. Thomas Chaburn, arrived home a short time ago, and is now visiting in Aurora. He saw action on the continent and expects to be discharged shortly.

Pte. Garnet Ash, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ash, Eversley, spent four years overseas with an R.C.O.C. detachment, going to the continent shortly after D-Day. He is now on leave with his wife and family.

C.Q.M.S. William Trent returned home on Monday after serving overseas since December, 1939. He went over with the 48th Highlanders and was wounded during the invasion of Sicily. He was later transferred back to England where he has been stationed ever since. His wife and son reside here.

L.-Cpl. Robert Hodgkinson, R.C.O.C., returned home on Tuesday after seeing service in England, France, Belgium, Holland and Germany. L.-Cpl. Hodgkinson went overseas in June of 1942 and was transferred to the Prince Edward Island Light Horse prior to the invasion of France.

Stoplights To Be Placed At Yonge, Wellington Sts.

Aurora town council has approved the erection of a stoplight at the corner of Yonge and Wellington Sts., and it is expected that the equipment will be installed and in operation by early October. The cost will be slightly over $600 and the yearly maintenance estimated at around $50 will be borne by the municipality. Negotiations have been reopened with the Toronto and York Roads Commission and the Ontario Department of Highways and it is believed a substantial proportion of the total cost will be absorbed by these bodies.

The scheme has been mooted for some years by Aurora councils and late fall traffic has indicated that traffic conditions at this corner are likely to increase with the lifting of gasoline and the easing of tire restrictions.

Molyneux Wins Jarvis Shield In Close Match

In a blazing finish, Larry Molyneux, Newmarket, former professional hockey star, defeated Ted Chatterley on the 36th green to win the club championship of the Highlands golf club Saturday and take possession of the Aemilius Jarvis shield for a year.

The pair teed off on Saturday morning for the first 18 holes and at the ninth, Chatterley was one-up, displaying steady golf than his opponent. At the lunch hour and 18 holes, Chatterley was two-up and appeared headed for a win. In the afternoon round he increased his lead to three-up at the 27th, and with only nine to go, Molyneux turned on the heat.

At the 32nd hole the boys were all even. By a brilliant birdie three on the 34th following his drive in the rough, Molyneux took the lead for the first time. Chatterley took the 35th to square the match, which left the short par three 36th (ninth) to decide the match, and a par did the trick for "Molly" with Ted going one over. A fair sized gallery picked up the duo for the afternoon round.

Molyneux becomes the fourth possessor of the trophy. Dr. G. W. Williams, Bill Cross and Bill Boaks, who won the cup for ten years, are the other winners. For his 36-hole total, Chatterley carded a 161, but the contest was on match not medal basis.

King Twp. Scholarship Unclaimed This Year

The King township scholarship, begun last year by a group of King township residents under the leadership of Prof. Victor Bladen of Eversley, and which provided a substantial scholarship at the University of Toronto to the King township student at Aurora high school having the highest honor matriculation standing and wishing to continue his education, has not been claimed this year and no award will be made.

word for one of North York's favorite sons, Billy Wilson. Bill joined the Buffalo club late in the season last year but Art Chapman figures he will be right in the groove this season and regain the form which he showed with Toronto navy. The ex-Aurora junior is deserving of a big break and all the fans will be pulling for him to go to town in a big way. He can do it too.

M.D. 2 softball finds Newmarket meeting a team from Malton-Brampton in the first round and the winner of this will in all probability clash with the Orillia vs. North Bay winners. Already Brantford camp have eliminated Simcoe camp and they bested the sensational young pitching star, Murray Dowe, in the process. Sgt. Bob King and his mates stand a good chance of coming through, providing they don't lose any more players. But being sure of an army line-up is something that just can't be done these days, between points, essential industry, farm leave, industrial leave, etc. The boys from No. 23 can be depended upon to do their best.

George Winters and his smooth working bowling partner, Gordy McPhail of Richmond Hill, brought honor to district bowlers with their splendid showing in the blue ribbon classic, the Globe Doubles. One hundred and eighty-two rinks were entered from all parts of Canada and the U.S.A. and the two North Yorkers battled their way right through to the final round where they lost by a narrow margin.

If you journey over to Lindsay fair this weekend, besides catching a good time and seeing some extra good races, take a look at Paddy Conklin's shows and if you look close enough you'll discover among others at the aquacade our old friend, Les Beazer, whose diving act is one of the features of the show. Les is bronze as a berry, in the pink of condition and while no announcement has been made as yet, we understand he has the inside track for the rink job at Newmarket again.

Orchids to that gallant band of youngsters from Newmarket and Aurora who have been giving Carmen Bush and his Columbus midgets from Toronto such a battle in the play-offs. That game last Saturday was a heartbreaker to lose at the pits after having a 5-0 lead and nervousness and excitement caused the loss. These Toronto boys have been lauded to the skies and most of them, including Pitcher "Hop" Hemphill, have been given the benefit of intensive training as well as being looked upon as sure pro bets. Our lads are every bit as good considering the handicaps they have worked under and regardless of the outcome of the series, can take a well-merited bow for their efforts. We hope they get some recognition for their courage and team spirit in the face of odds for it is only a few men, plus the willingness of the boys that has enabled them to get this far. They're tops on and off the field in our books.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Quinn and Ernie Dewsbury. With the enthusiasm they have shown in this task and if continued in the coming years, they will have won considerable credit in overcoming any juvenile delinquency the town may have. Looking over our show committee, we see such names as Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brammer, Mr. and Mrs. James Gibney, Wilnot Harden, Howard Proctor, Bohmer Groves and Lois Cane. Is it any wonder that our flower shows have been larger and more successful this year? The Gibneys, the Brammers, the Harman, all old standbys of the society, are flower lovers who give many an hour of their time encouraging nature to produce more beautiful flowers to delight the eye of man. Mr. Brammer, who has been a member of the society since its beginning, was this year given credit for his many years of service. He was the recipient of a certificate, a reward of merit from the department of horticulture.

To the other hard workers of the society there is also to be given credit. Thanks are owing to A. D. Evans, Sanford King, George Hoare of the civic improvement committee, to Jack Le Good of the purchasing committee and to Orley Hayes of the program committee.
